HEADQUARTERS STATE OF WISCONSIN. ADJUTANT GENERAL. Madison, March 25, 1864.

—THOR E. LLOYD, of Defiance, Ohio, appeared in the streets of Beetown, Grant county, Wis., on the evening of the 20th of October last, as a stranger.

Asking one W. H. Holloway to accompany him, he went to the residence of a Dr. Tawney living there, called the Dr. to the door, inquired of him where his (Lloyd's) wife was, and receiving answer that she was in an adjoining room, he went to the door and entered the room, where he was met with a full pardon for him, when he was at once set at liberty. Such is the history of this somewhat singular case.

WE REPRINT in another column an article from the New York Evening Post upon the postponement of the National Convention.

We deem its arguments sound and conclusive, and can truthfully coincide in its disavowal of emnity to Mr. Lincoln or any other candidate for nomination, in advocating this postponement. The motive is not political, but patriotic. It comes from the strong desire to ascertain whether the presidency will be worth having before we quarrel about who shall have it.

A Slight Advance.

Some of the New York Hotel keepers have advanced their prices for board to $5 per day—during the Sanitary Fair!

The paper having the largest circulation in the world, is now said to be that issued by Secretary Chase.

It is an extremely loyal publication, too. It supports both the Administration and the Union.

STATE NEWS.

The Beaver Dam Citizen says the only son of Hon. H. N. Smith, of Plymouth, Sheboygan county, a young man about 17 years of age, who had just returned home from school, was instantly killed at Sheboygan Falls, last week.

The True Value of a Greenback Dollar.

The popular mind is abused, to a great extent, with a false idea of the true value in gold of a dollar of our present circulating medium. Many persons who have noticed gold quoted at, for instance, 60 per cent. premium, were of the opinion, probably, that their dollar greenback was worth in gold just as many cents less a dollar as the gold was quoted above.

ON THEIR RETURN.

Eighty veterans, belonging to the 2d Wisconsin Cavalry, passed through our city to-day noon, on their way to Madison.

BOX FOR THE 2d CAVALRY.

A box is to be packed for the Second Cavalry, at the store of Skelly & Brother, on Milwaukee street, on Tuesday, the 19th. Those who wish to send will bear this in mind.

LECTURE BY S. M. BOOTH.

This gentleman speaks in this city at the Court House to-morrow. He is an eloquent speaker, and those who hear him cannot fail of being interested and pleased. He speaks at Lima on Friday.

THE "GREAT REBELLION."

Some thousands of our citizens are well aware that the first "Great Rebellion" in our city is inaugurated to-night, at Lappin's Hall. Not one of devilish ambition, suffering and freedom murder, but of sweet song, dramatic pleasure and union-loving sentiment. All we have to say is by way of advice. Go early.

RETURN THAT SAW.

Somebody has borrowed a wood-saw from the wagon shop of Mr. William Skelly, near the Hyatt House, and forgotten to bring it back. It had been used by Mr. Henry Vance, a colored wood sawyer, and the person who borrowed it required for it in his name, Mr. Skelly wants to recover his property, and Mr. Vance wants it for his use.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, The weather has been and continues to be such as was never known before except about Noah's time which from all accounts proved unfortunate to the agricultural interests, and

WHEREAS, If this bad spell of (weather) is to continue a few days longer making forty days and forty nights, wood will remain in the woods along the rail roads in spite of the bill referred to the committee last winter in the Legislature, and

WHEREAS, Raids will be committed upon the inoffensive woodpiles of rich, though respectable people, thus taking private property for the use of the public without due compensation, being entirely unconstitutional, and

WHEREAS Mr. Darling has taken in his goose, being wet through the feathers (that is the goose), and

WHEREAS, The gold from the golden sheep hanging in front of McKay & Bro's is washing out, creating a rash almost equaling that to Idaho, thus making prices go up from their present low figures, and

WHEREAS, The weather, without any provocation (in the words of seamen sympathizers) is making war upon an innocent and defenseless people, depriving us of our inherent and constitutional right, and

WHEREAS, The army of the Potomac can't move when its wet (that is the weather) and it "won't" move when its dry (that is the army);

Now therefore, If the Mayor of the city of Janesville by virtue of the honor vested in me, and following the illustrious example of the Pope who issued his bull to the comet when it threatened, (that is the comet not the bull) his temporal power—order that the sun shine within twenty days (legal service) after the publication of this Proclamation, and that the rain "dry up" as soon thereafter as possible.

ATTEST CLERK &c. By ORDER &c.

Things to be Remembered.

First, That it is a positive business necessity to have your buildings, merchandise and other personal property insured against fire.

Second, That E. L. Dimock now has the agency of nearly all the Sound Old Eastern Insurance Companies that are represented in the west, and that the capital represented by these companies is sufficient to do all the insurance for Janesville and Rock County.

Third, That these companies are noted for adjusting losses fairly and paying them promptly.

Fourth, That E. L. Dimock has left a few more of those beautiful calendars for 1864, blotting pads and excise laws for distribution to customers.

THE EYE AND EAR.—Persons suffering from diseases of those delicate organs should avail themselves of the opportunity now afforded for obtaining relief. Dr. Gardner, the eminent and skillful oculist of Milwaukee, can be consulted until Friday next at the Hyatt House. From our exchanges we learn of several cures he has performed. He also brings testimonials from patients he has cured in Milwaukee—therefore we have no hesitation in recommending him to the confidence of the afflicted.

—Prentice is glad to learn that the rebel ladies of Nashville have become very gentle and courteous in their deportment. A couple of years ago, whenever they passed a Federal officer, they would spit at like humpbacked cats.

DIED.

In this city, on the 12th day of April, 1864, DANIEL BLANKET, aged seventy-one years, one month and twenty-eight days.

He was born in the town of Stonington, county of New London, Connecticut, on the 14th day of February, 1792. At the commencement of the war of 1812 he enlisted into the 23d Regiment, United States Infantry for three years, and served until his last day at Fort Erie, Canada, while the American army was besieged at that place. He was in the skirmish at Black Rock, near Buffalo, and the severely contested battle of Family Lane. After the treaty of peace he settled in Jefferson county, New York, where he resided until the spring of 1851, when he removed to this State, residing about three years in the town of Sharon, Walworth county, but for the last ten years in this city.

He was a man of excellent common sense and great simplicity of character, his conduct with his fellow men being always regulated by a sense of duty instead of any notions of policy or expediency. For more than half a century he has been a faithful and devoted Christian, laboring at the time of his decease a member of the Seventh Day Baptist Church at Milton. He was a pure patriot, and took a deep interest in the great struggle in which our Government is now engaged, and often expressed the wish that he might live long enough to see freedom put down. He retained his reason to the last moment—received the announcement from his physician that he could not survive but a few hours, and, after a short struggle, he peacefully passed away, leaving a wife and four children, all of whom he left behind him, and a large number of friends who will miss his presence.

Funeral services at the residence of John H. Bennett, on Milton Avenue, to-morrow (Thursday) at 12 o'clock. His body will lie in state at the Milton house. Friends of the deceased are invited to attend.—(Con.)
